brisk northwest winds.

TWO DEAD IN RESIDENCE FIRE | HEINZE IN A BARROOM FIGHT.

LEONARD LEWISOHN'S DAUGHTER AND A SERVANT KILLED.

Mrs. Philip S. Henry Suffocated in a Blaze Which Wrecked Her Home-Wattress Lost Her Head and Jumped From a window-Two Henry Children Saved.

Mrs. Philip S. Henry, a daughter of the late Leonard Lewisohn, the banker, and a sister of Jesse Lewisohn, was killed yesterday morning in a fire in her home. 54 Fast Fifty-sixth street. It was Mrs. Henry who first discovered the fire and gave the slarm which enabled the other members of the family and four of her five servants to escape. Alvida Erickson, a Swedish waitress, was killed by jumping from a third-story window. The two Henry babies were saved by their father and a nurse. Until the mother's body was found in a second-floor sittingroom it was supposed that she had reached the home of a neighbor in safety Her body lay within three feet of a front window, which she had evidently tried to reach. Mrs. Henry, who was Miss Florine Lewisolm, was but 25 years old. She was married or April 10, 1900, to Philip S. Henry, who was in the brokerage business in London at the time. He has since moved to this city and is engaged in the coffee business. He s building a house at Eighty-sixth street and Fifth avenue, and the Henrys were living only temporarily in the Fifty-sixth house, which they had leased from C. Richardson, who, with his family, is staying for the season at Lakewood. Most of the furniture and pictures which were destroyed yesterday were the property of Mr. Richardson. The estimated loss on nem is $40,000. When Mr. Henry came to this country to be married in March, 1900, he was arrested by Treasury Agent Theobald on a charge of smuggling, and $8,000 worth of jewelry and laces which he had brought with him was seized. He proved that the goods seized were not subject to duty because they were all presents for Miss Lewisohn, who would carry them back to London after they were married. He was then released. The Henrys have had two children-Violet, 2 years, and Gladys, five weeks old.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry occupied a sleeping room on the second floor in the rear. The fire started in the pantry which occupied about all of a rear extension of the first foor and the roof of which was directly under Mrs. Henry's bedroom windows.

The flames had time to burn through the roof of the extension before they were discovered. Then Mrs. Henry, who was in bed, saw the flames reflected in a mirror and awakened her husband, who rushed to the rescue of his children. This was just after 6 o'clock. Just what Mrs. Henry did after that nobody could tell, not even the cook, who in saving herself went through the room in which her mistress's body was found. The children were asleep on the third floor. Mr. Henry grabbed Violet from her bed and started for the street with her, shouting "Fire!" and calling to each servant by name.

The servants, whose quarters were on the top floor, just above the nursery, all heard him and, with the exception of the wait-him and, with the exception of the waitress, rushed for the stairs.

Margaret Mayer, one of the two nurses, was the first person out of the house. She was on the sidewalk crying and shricking cordemnation of herself for not having stopped for one of the children when the father came out with Violet.

The Mayer woman, who was barefooted, and in her nightrown, was calmed some-

The Mayer woman, who was barefooted, and in her nightgown, was calmed somewhat, but was still too hysterical to take the child to the nearest shelter. Instead, she fled barefooted, through the snow and with the baby in her arms, across Madison arcane, along Fifty-sixth street to Fifth arcane, and then down to 22 West Fifty-fifth street, the home of Albert Lewisoln. fifth street, the home of Albert Lewisoln Trere she got shelter for herself and the child and at the same time aroused the family. Walter, Fred and Oscar Lewisohn, three of Mrs. Henry's brothers, went over to the burning house and got there just in time to take care of Mr. Henry, who was fighting with policemen and firemen for an opportunity to get back into the building to find his wife. He had already made a second trip to the nursery to get the baby. On this trip he met Mina Rudge, the other nurse, coming out of the children's room with Gladys in her arms, and followed her down stairs.

downstairs.

The nurse and the baby got into the street just in time to escape the flames, which had reached the front hall, and went to the Essex apartment house at Madison avenue and Fifty-sixth street. Mr. Henry was not so fortunate. His face was burned and he was almost overcome by smoke. He finally reached the sidewalk with his pajamas afte and fell unconscious in the snow. Neighbors put out the fire on his clothing with snow.

bis clothing with snow.

Just before this, Alvida Erickson, the waitress climbed out of a third-story window in her nightgown and stood on the sill. She had made her way down one flight from the servants' quarters, but was cut off on the third floor by the smoke and

"Don't jump," people yelled at her from e street. "The ladders will be here in the street.

a minute."

She gave one shriek and then jumped, landing in the middle of the street. She died an hour later.

About the same time Ida Sheffer, the cook, climbed out of the shting-room window on the secon differ fronta a hung from an iron balcony until she was rescued by Fireman Scallon of Hook and Ladder 2.

The last person to come out alive hy The last person to come out alive be ay of the front door was Mary Quinn'rs. Henry's maid. She ran down thou stoop with her nightgown ablaze. "They're all out," she exclaimed. "Every-body's safe. I shouted at every landing. I shouted at Mrs. Henry's door and got no answer. They are all out." Then she

It was immediately after that that Mr It was immediately after that Mr. Henry recovered consciousness and, not finding his wife in the street, made frantic attempts to return to the house, which by that time was a furnace. Policemen had hard work to restrain him said neighbors tried to ressure him by telling him that Mrs. Henry had followed one of the children to the Essex. Others told him that she had gone to the home of her brother, Albert Lewisohn, in West Fifty-fifth street, and he was finally induced to go there.

had gone to the home of her brother, Albert Lewisohn, in West Fifty-fifth street, and he was finally induced to go there.

His condition was such that the family did not dare inform him of Mrs. Henry's fate at the incomplete of the fire.

Ida Sheffer, the cook, went to Newark before anybody had a chance to ask if she had seen her mistress. The room from which she climbed through the window was the one in which Mrs. Henry's body was found. That was the sitting room. Behild that were bath and dressing rooms and in the rear of them was Mrs. Henry's sleeping room. Mrs. Henry's body was not burned. She was killed by suffocation in going the length of the house.

The whole house was guited and the fire burned so fiercely that pieces of hard teakwood furniture were reduced to charcoal and several metal ornaments in the parlor were twisted and melted out of shape.

The cause of the fire, in the opinion of the

The cause of the fire, in the opinion of the Lewisohn family, was a defective flue leading from the kitchen range in the basement and running up the rear wall between the body of the house and the pantry ex-

New Train for Fiorida.

Leave New York 3:25 P. M. daily via Pennsylvania R. R., Congressional Limited (all Pullmans), connecting in Washington with Scaboard Air Line Railway 3:36 P. M., through Sieeping Cars for Railway 3:36 P. M., through Cacah passengers for this connection, leave New York 2:16 P. M. week days and 12:35 P. M. Sundays. Office 1183 B'way. For the Conneisser:

The Copper Millionaire Whips a Butte Lawyer.

BUTTE, Mon., Jan. 11 .- F. Augustus Heinze, the millionaire mining man and famous litigant with the Amalgamated Copper Company, became involved in a bloody fist fight last night in the barroom of the Thornton Hotel with John M. Dixon. well-known lawyer.

Heinze was accused of having used a vile pithet against Judge Hiram Knowles of he United States Court, which Dixon resented. The result was a fight in which Dixon was knocked down by a blow on the nose that caused blood to flow profusely.

Both men clinched and Mr. Heinze, who s much the heavier man, forced Dixon down on one of the grill seats, where he choked him until the lawyer, in response to a question, expressed a willingness to discontinue hostilities. The men then separated and departed in different directions with friends.

The report of the fight soon spread and was discussed in barrooms, clubs and hotel lobbies. It appears that Mr. Dixon and several friends were in the barroom of the hotel when Heinze entered He accepted an invitation to join the party, it is said, and a general conversation followed.

The talk drifted to politics and incidentally to the successes and failures of Mr. Heinze until finally Heinze is said to have applied a vile epithet to Judge Knowles.

Mr. Dixon declared that Mr. Heinze must retract his statement. Mr. Heinze refused to make any retraction, whereupon Mr. Dixon took off his coat and declared that there must be a retraction or a fight.

The declaration of Mr. Dixon provoked from Mr. Heinze a repetition of the epithet and immediately Dixon struck him. Mr. Heinze retaliated with a blow on Dixon's nose. There were some rapid exchanges and the men clinched, Mr. Heinze bearing Mr. Nixon down on the grill seat and choking him.

DIDN'T SHOOT AT ALFONSO. The Assassin Was After the Duke of Sotomayor.

Special Cable Despatch to THE STN.

MADRID, Jan. 11 .- The following has been "On Friday a man mentally affected asked for an interview in Madrid wis the Duke of Sotomayor, the Lord Chamber lain. The Duke, knowing his condition, refused to stop. "The man, being aware that on Saturday the Duke would accompany the King to the Church of Buen Suceso for a Salve service, shot at his carriage, which was following that of his Majesty. A policeman, seeing the attempt, cut at the assail-ant with his sword. The man was immediately arrested.

"There was no attempt at all on the life

King Alfonso has received a number of messages from the chief political person ages in Spain congratulating him upon his escape. He showed serenity throughout the incident. The Queen Mother Christina and the Infanta Maria Teresa, who were present, were much affected.

It is now learned that the name of the man who attempted to shoot the Duke of that Gorman was about ready to turn out that grant the commissioner's party a closely that Gorman was about ready to turn out that grant the commissioner's party and the commissioner' double-barreil d pistol. The first shot went over the carriage in which the Marquis de Mina and another official were riding. A policeman struck him with his sabreand overpowered him before he could shoot again.

It is believed that he wanted to shoot the Duke of Sotomayor because the Duke had refused to employ him as a servant Collar lived for years in the Argentin Republic, where he was demented. He robbed him of hundreds of thousands of He has been employed as a servant in aristocratic houses in Madrid, but was always dismissed for his crankiness.

declares that the Argentine Government

RUN THE DARDANELLES. British Embassy's Order to an Egyptian

Steamship.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 11 - The Porte has not yet replied to Great Britain's protest against Turkey's allowing Russian torpedo boats to pass through the Dardanelles. No other Power has pronounced itself on the question. After vaiting vainly for two years to btain the same privileges for the Khedival Navigation Company as other comanies enjoy, namely, that its ships may pass through the Dardanelles, the British Embassy has determined to wait no longer and has instructed the steamer El Kahira, which sailed yesterday for Alexandria, to pass through the Dardanelles without topping. This decision has the effect of ignoring he Sultan's succrainty over things Egyptian, which reservotion pow will be removed PRINCESS MAI CEAVE GIRON, Not to Return to Her Husband, but to Go to Her Old Home in Austria.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. VIENNA, van. 11 .- Great efforts are being rade to induce the Crown Princess of Saxony to forsake M. Giron, with whom she eloped, and return to Austria. If she consents her personal liberty will be guarniteed. She is urged to remember that ner expected child ought to be born in cir umstances befitting its rank. It is believed here that she has shown an inclination to accept the proposition that she return to Austria. At a meeting of her lawyer and the lawyer of the Crown Prince, at which she was present, she was much more amenable to reason than formerly, and it is expected that she will return to her childhood home at Salzburg.

The bedroom in which she slept as a girl is being refurnished in anticipation of her return.

It is learned that the Crown Princess wen It is learned that the Crown Princess went to church at Geneva to-day for the first time since she arrived there.

Her brother, Archduke Leopold, was in Geneva yesterday. Mile. Adamovics, whom the Archduke is said to be desirous of marrying, is very iii.

M. Giron still spends most of his time in Geneva. He has only rented a room

OUSTS A CAPTAIN ON THE SPOT

GREENE SUSPENDS GORMAN IN HIS OWN STATION.

Dashed by a Saloen in His Auto and Saw Crowds Within-After Investigating, He Calls at the Union Market Station -Police Made Eighty-eight Arrests.

Police Commissioner Greene made a econd Sunday automobile tour of the city n yesterday's rain and one of its results was the summary suspension of Capt. Michael Gorman of the Union Market station on a charge of neglect of duty.

Gen. Greene, Inspector Brooks and the Commissioner's secretary started from the General's house about 2:30 yesterday afternoon in the automobile to take a glimpee of as much of the East Side as possible Before the Commissioner got home to supper he had covered from twenty-five to thirty miles of First, Second and Third avenues. Avenues A and B, besides a good part of Sixth avenue and the side streets below Fourteenth street. The police stations in Mulberry, Eldridge, Delancey, Fifth and Mercer streets were visited in addition to the Union Market. On the way to the Delancey street station, as the auto was passing the junction of Rivington and Clinton streets, the saloon on the northeast corner attracted the Commissioner's attention. He could see through street side tables filled with drinkers. He cointed it out to Inspector Brooks.

We'll have to hurry up and see Capt Holahan about that," he said. "It's in Capt. Gorman's precinct," the Inspector explained.

"Never mind," said the Commissioner I'll assign Holahan to it. Keep right

The party inspected the Delancey street house, and just as they were ready to go. Gen. Greene invited the captain to come along with him and bring a couple of his men.

Holahan chose Plain-Cothes Men Moran and Minnery, and with these reinforcements the Commissioner's party went back afoot to the Clinton street saloon. The windows were clear and the place was still

The front and side doors were locked and the Commissioner led the way into an adjoining hall and into the saloon. The Commissioner said last night that when he stepped into the room the law was being flagrantly violated. "A screen of green gatzy stuff was hung front of the bar but the bottles could be plainly seen through it. There were men ehind the bar and there must have been from twenty-five to thirty persons seated at the tables drinking. The mere fact of their presence in the barroom was a violation of the law in itself. I spent about eve minutes in the place and looked at the censes. Then I left the case in Capt. Holahan's charge and went around to the Union Market station. After going over the house, I told Capt. Gorman of the flagrant violation I had stumbled upon in his presinct and as it was so patent a neglect of duty I suspended him on the spot, putting sergt. Ryan in charge of the precinct. It was Capt. Gorman who was transferred from The Bronx because Park Commissioner Eustis objected to the Captain's riding his horse on the grass in Bronx Pa:k. said he was glad to get back because he wouldn't have so many bosses At the Union Market precinct they say that Gorman was about ready to turn out ame along. It was then nearly 6 o'clock, and the captain was in citizen's clothes. The Commissioner ordered him upstairs put on his uniform the first thing.

The place that got Capt. Gorman into trouble is a saloon and lunch room run by woman named Sail Agia. They said last night in the precinct that there was nothing but offee and lunch being sold there when the Commissioner broke in, and the men benind the bar were carving ducks and hickens. The arrest that Commissioner Greene ordered was the only excise arrest made in the precinct yesterday.

Commissioner Greene seemed well pleased with his day's work when seen at his home last night. He said that the patrolling was better than last Sunday despite the bad

"But it's not yet as good as it ought to be," he said. "One thing I noted was that the saloons are keeping their bars exposed. in the twenty-five or thirty miles of streets we covered yesterday I calculated that we saw about 600 saloons and in every case I could see the bar.

"I stopped at half a dozen saloons and hotels to make sure that the law wasn't being violated and inspected the places from top to bottom. In the case of a couple of the Raines Law hotels the proprietors were running so close to the line that I had some doubt about their legality. I left them to the captains to look out for."

The Commissioner said that he found the

The Commissioner said that he found the tation houses he visited reasonably neat and clean, but that several were in urgent need of repairs. Secretary Coursey made notes of what was necessary in the way of repairs for each station. Commissioner Greene also says the city can remain very wet on Sunday without a single violation of the law. In Manhattan and The Bronx yesterday the police made eighty-eight arrests for violations of the Liquor Tax law. This is the largest number since the so-called "revolt" in several precincts, and it is away above the Sunday average.

Capt. Schmittberger's men in the West Entry areath street precinct made Capt. Schmittberger's men in the West Forty-seventh street precinct made eleven arrests more than in anyother pre-cinct. Capt. Cottrell, who is called "no man's man," made ten arrests in the West wentieth street precinct. CAPT. O'REILLY RESTS CONTENT.

Capt. O'Reilly said last night that he was ell satisfied with the condition of the Ten-"I've been all over the precinct," said to precinct, and everything is in good shape. The excise law was enforced to the letter, and everythe saloonkeepers seem happy."

There were four excise arrests in the Tental in the content of the saloonkeepers.

capt. O'Reilly is going to attend his first French ball to-night. Acting Inspector Walsh will be in charge of police at the ball. Capt. O'Reilly was asked if he would stop title believe.

high kicking.
"Not unless they kick the roof of the Garden off," said he. "Then I ii bave to stop 'em." Lanatic in Athens Palace. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

ATRENS, Jan. 11 .- A lunatic made his way into the Palace to-day and demanded see the throne room. He was arrested and placed in an asylum.

Burnett's Extract of Vanilla used exclusively by all leading hotels and clubs.

Change in Atlanta Sleeper.

Commencing January 12th, Pullman sleeping cars will leave New York via Pennsylvania R. R., West 23d St. ferry, 2:10 P. M., week days, 12:36 P. M. Sundays, for Atlante via Scaboard Air Line Ballway. Office, 1183 Broadway.—Afr.

GEN. SAMUEL THOMAS DEAD. Final Illness Came Upon Him Suddenly Yesterday-In Bad Health for a Year.

Gen. Samuel Thomas died at 11:50 o'clock last night at his home, 17West Fifty-seventh street. He had been ill for over a year. About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon he was seized with an attack of heart disease. At his bedside when he died were Mrs. Thomas, his two sons, Edward R. and Harold E., and his daughter, Mrs. R. L.

Beeckman. Samuel Thomas was born in South Point, Ohio, Oct. 27, 1840, and was educated at Marietta, Ohio. At the age of 17 he went to work for the Keystone Iron Company as junior clerk. In 1861 he enlisted with 100 comrades, was elected First Lieutenant of the company. When he quit fighting in 1865 he was a Brigadier-General by brevet. After the war he went into business Columbus, Ohio, and soon made himself successful in mining and manufacturing and as a banker. He was one of the ori ginators and constructors of the Nickel most of whom had occupied positions under his control in the iron works, and he railroad enterprises.

Gen. Thomas became president of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia, the Knoxville and Ohio, the Memphis and Charleston, the Cincinnati Southern and Alabama and Creat Southern roads and was largely concerned in the organization of the Southern Railway system.

Plate Road and promoted many other Still later he was elected a director i the Northern Pacific Railway, and in connection with this company he built the Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Railway and became its president. He was also president of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Railway, the American Straw Board Company, the United States Cast Iron Pipe and Foundry Company and the Columbus Gas Light and Heating Company. He was a member of the New York Stock Exchange, coming to New York in 1881 and engaging in banking at that time. He was one or the contractors who built the new Croton Aqueduct.

In his younger days Gen. Thomas conspicuous in Ohio politics.

BREMERTON ACCUSES CAPT. EATON The Wickedest Post's Newspaper Says the Naval Officer Repudiates His I O U's.

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 11.-The town of Bremerton, where the Puget Sound naval station is located is up in arms against Capt. Eaton, recently commander of the battleship Oregon. In a report filed at Washington, Capt. Eaton said that Bremerton was not conducting its affairs properly to insure good conduct among the large number of men employed at the navy yard.

Reports made by him and other officers said that the town was full of saloons, gambling houses and resorts of shady reputation, where Government employees were lured to spend their money and reek in vice. In consequence the Navy Department issued an order that no further repair work should be done there until the questionable resorts were closed.

The Bremerton News, in its issue of yes his personal card with an "I O U" thereon and afterward repudiating his obligations. An affidavit made by Thomas Kelly, illiam Stricker, W. H. Owens and Herman Geisler recites that Capt. Eaton, then com manding the Oregon, borrowed $20 from Kelly, giving an I O U for it on his official card and promising to return the money on the following day. The affidavit says that he failed to pay the money, and several days later, in the presence of men who had seen it lent, denied having borrowed it, and repudiated the debt.

Another affidavit alleges that Eaton borrowed $10 and again repudiated the

The Bremerton News says further that as a matter of fact Eaton "was something of a sport himself, frequenting gambling tables and imbibing freely from the flowing bowl."

YALE STUDENT TAKES A WIFE. Gouverneur Paulding, 2d. Married Mi Reld on the Xmas Vacation.

A Christmas holidays' romance of a Yale student and a b lie of Norfolk, Va. was revealed yesterday by the announcemen a THE SUN of the marriage of Gouverneur Paulding, 21, to Susan Elizabeth Reid. Mr. Paulding is a son of Robert Parrott Paulding and is a student of naval archi ecture at Yale. He is 25 years old. His bride is a daughter of James Taylor Soutter Reid of Norfolk and is 19. They were married last Monday in Washington by the Rev. F. M Bristol, who is pastor of the church President McKinley attended. The bride notified her parents of her marriage by telegraph and Mr. Paulding telegraphed his aunt, Mrs. George A. Freeman of East Seventieth street. Mr. Paulding's mother died when he was young and he has lived with Mrs. Freeman, whose hus band is an architect. Mr. Paulding notified his aunt that would bring his bride home with him. He iid on Thursday, and they have been at Mrs. Freeman's house since. They will make their home in New Haven until the end of Mr. Paulding's college course, this spring. Mr. Paulding's folks didn't want him to marry until he got out of college. When the Christmas holiday vacation came Mr. Paulding announced that he was going to Norfolk to spend his holidays with Miss Reid's family. Mrs. Freeman said last night that Mr. Paulding and Miss Reid had been engaged for a year, but their marriage was not expected so soon.

Mr. Paulding is a member of the Larch mont Yacht Club and has made a yachting trip to Europe. For a time he was in India. TEN FINED FOR . FROFANITY.

Vineland Calls It an Epidemic, Due to Compulsory Vaccination.

VINELAND, N. J., Jan. 11 .- The authorities here have inaugurated a crusade against "curbstone profanity," ten persons having been arrested and fined by the City Recorder for using vulgar and profane language on the streets.

While it is admitted that an epidem of profanity is sweeping over Vineland, it is said in extenuation that it is caused by suffering from compulsory vaccination. An Intelligent Critic can find no fault with the rapidity of schedule appointments of the Pennsylvania Speci 20-hour train between New York and Chicago.

WALDORF'S JEWEL BUYER

CARRIED TWO REVOLVERS IN HER HANDBAG.

Ordered $40,000 Worth of Jewelry From One Firm and $60,000 Worth From Another, All to Be Sent to the Hotel C. O. D .- Now in Insane Pavilion.

A woman dressed in black and apparently about 32 years old was taken to Bellevue Hospital in a closed carriage from the Waldorf-Astoria last evening by Detective Smith of the hotel and one of the hotel porters. At Bellevue she was put in the insane ward. To the hospital authorities she refused to give her name or supply any information about herself beyond the party, there being on the coach besides fact that she lived at 1310 Arch street, Philadelphia. She had registered at the hotel as "Mrs. Maignen, Philadelphia."

She arrived three days ago and carried only a small handbag. She hired a room of moderate cost and took her meals in the hotel. Nothing peculiar was noticed about her, apparently, until Saturday when she went to the jewelry store of Black, Starr & Frost on Fifth avenue and picked out a quantity of jewelry including several diamond pieces. The amount of the bill, the hotel people say, was about $40,000. After she had picked out the goods she rdered them sent to her at the hotel C.O.D. and said that she would give a check to the man who delivered the goods.

Up to this time the jewellers hadn' oticed anything strange about the woman except the amount of her purchase. Just before leaving she opened her hand bag and took out her handkerchief As she did so the clerk who had waited on her saw in the bag a rather large revolver. 'te reported this to the head of the firm and it was decided to make some inquiries about he woman at the hotel.

The representative of the firm was inormed at the hotel that nothing was known here about the woman or her circumstances.

In the meantime the woman, after leavng Black, Starr & Frost's, apparently went Kirkpatrick's, which is at the corner of Fifth avenue and Thirty-third street, opposite the hotel. There she ordered ever more stuff than she had at the former place. When she had got through picking out jewlry at Kirkpatrick's her bill amounted, so he hotel people say, to about $60,000. She ordered the goods sent in the same manner o the hotel and gave the same name.

Kirkpatrick's representative arrived to inquire about the woman pretty soon after the man from Black, Starr & Frost's and then the hotel folks began to think that something was the matter About 9 o'clock last night Detective Smith went to the woman's room and told her she would have to go away with him. She made no resistance and was put into a cab with out attracting any attention at all. She took her bag along with her and put it lown on the seat beside her. Just as Smith was about to order the cab start the woman made a grab for the bag. Detective Smith got it first, opened t and found in it two revolvers, both loaded.

mith then got a porter to go along with him, but the woman made no further trouble. At the hospital the bag was searched There were only a few articles of apparel terday, charges Capt. Eaton with borrowing and two chamois-skin bags, such as are money from Bremerton citizens, giving used for carrying jewelry. In these was a quantity of jewelry which seemed to be either paste or very cheap. A cording to the hospital authorities, the woman also had some papers which seemed to indicate that she has a husband whose are K. A. M. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 11.-Mrs. P. A Maignen is a Paris woman, wife of Prosper A. Maignen, taventor and manufacturer of a p.tent asbestos filteration system for municipal water supplies. The couple came to this city from France about eight years ago and have prospered. They occupy a handsome house in a fashionable part of Germantown, the house at 1310 Arch street being simply used for the manufacture of filters.

MISSING JEWELS FOUND. Were They Stolen by the Parrot, or Hidden by Angry Stepfather?

While helping to dismantle the bric-à-brac shop of the late Samuel Fischer at 226 Washington street, Hoboken, on Saterday night, James Mulligan found a chamois bag filled with jewels among a lot of rubbish on a shelf. The jewels, which were the property of Fischer's stepdaughter Hannah, were appraised by an expert yesterday, who valued them at $1,500. Fischer, who was one of Hoboken's wealthiest merchants, was killed while driving his trotter, Silvertail, in 1894. He reported the theft of the jewels to he police shortly after the marriage of the stepdaughter to Samuel Healey, the family coachman, in 1894, and offered a eward of $1,000 for their recovery. The police searched for them for more than a year, but could get no clue to the robbery. Healey, who has taken possession of the jewels, said last night that he believed they had been secreted in the shop by a parret owned by his wife. The police have another theory of the disappearance of the jewels. They believe that Fischer became so incensed at the young woman for marrying the coachman that he hid hem himself. They say the chamois bag which contained them was not kept at the shop, but at the Fischer home in Washington street The stepdaughter's wedding ring was in the bag. Fischer disinherited the young woman in his will, but she has continued to run his business with her husband since the merchant's death.

HER 101ST BIRTHDAY.

The Oldest Member of the Daughters of the Revolution and a Relative of Bryan. RICHMOND, Ind., Jan. 11.-Mrs. Mary Forba Cobb, widely known as the oldest member of the Daughters of the Revolution and for her relationship to William Jennings Bryan, to-day celebrated her 101st birthday anniversary at her home in Russiaville, Ind. Mrs. Cobb's father was a soldier in the Revolution and her grandfather was a Captain under George Wash ington. She heard Henry Clay and Daniel Webster speak several times and recalls many events of her childhood.

Hours Quickest for t'inchurst. Leave New York via Pennsylvania R. R., Con-gressional Limited, daily, West 23d St. ferry, 3::5 P. M., connects with new train at Washington 8:50 P. M. via Seaboard Air Line Railway, arriving Pinehurst 8:15 A. M. Office, 1183 Broadway.— 4df.

A Daily Necessity.

The Pennsylvania Special offers rapid service from New York to Chicago, every day in the year. Stenographer, ladies' maid and stock reports—extra appointments.—Adv.

NEGRO ON VANDERBILT COACH Alfred G. Gives an Infirm Man a Bid to Town With Coaching Party.

NEWPORT, R. I., Jan. 11 .- A negro laborer, well-advanced in years and infirm, William Riley, is telling his friends about a ride that he had on Tuesday last with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt. Mr. Riley was out on the island and while hobbling home late in the afternoon he heard the clatter of horses behind him and turning saw a oach approaching. It was Mr. Vanderpilt's. He stopped his horses and asked he old man if he would not like to ride to own. Stammering an acceptance, Mr. Riley clambered up to the top of the coach and took a seat beside the fashionable

Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt, Miss Neilson and Mr. Reginald C. Vanderbilt. On the way to town Mr. Vanderbilt inuired where his passenger lived and he as landed at his door on Bath road. As the coach passed through the city the appearance of the old man on the top atracted no end of attention.

"PRESCRIPTIONS" FOR COAL. Some Dealers in Brooklyn Demand Physiclan's Certificate.

Coal is considered such a luxury in somparts of Brooklyn that a physician's certifiate showing there is iflness in the house of the applicant is required by some of the retail dealers Several days ago a physician in the Flatush section was surprised to receive ar unusually early call from a woman patient who as soon as she saw the doctor exlaimed: "Doctor, I want a prescription for a ton of coal. My coal dealer refuses to send me any coal unless I prove to him by a physician's signature that there is sickness in our

The certificate was duly made out and igned and the woman was successful in ecuring her ton of coal.

seeking prescriptions for coal. MRS. NEILSON HAS LOST A DOG. Pope, a French Poodle, Strays From Its Fifth Avenue Home. Mrs. Frederic Neilson, the mother of leginald Vanderbilt's fiance; drove to the l'enderloin police station last night and asked that a general alarm be sent out for a French poodle that had strayed from her home, 100 Fifth avenue, on Saturday.

"It's a child's pet," said Mrs. Neilson and valuable. I'll pay a reward for the return of the dog."

Popo is the name of the dog and it wears collar marked "100 Fifth avenue." log is pure white and its hair is in tufts on s body. It is the pet of the child of Mrs. . T. Kemp, a daughter of Mrs. Neilson. Mrs. Kemp lives at her mother's house.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE LOBBY. six of the Fair Sex Camping on the Trail of Nebraska's Legislature.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 11 .- An organized lobby of half a dozen women, with Miss Laura M. Gregg, secretary of the State Woman Suffrage Association, in charge, opened headquarters here to-day. Its vowed object is to secure favorable legisation for women at the hands of the Legis-ass of the Legislature shows

e successful. One law that the women propose to push with vigor is to give the wife on the death of the husband one-half of the estate, apart from the personal property, in fee simple, the other half going to the children.

The State association is on a firm business basis, with over fifty local organizations. Men are received on equal tooting with women and by this means a powerful sentiment is being formulated. Miss Gregg believes it is certain to give the women of Nebraska the ballot within a few years.

A. J. AKIN VERY ILL AT 99. Was Active in the Building of the Harlem

Railroad-Had Lived at Pawling. Albert J. Akin, who is within six months being 100 years old, is seriously ill at his home, 4 West Fifty-sixth street. He ontracted a cold in December, from which he had apparently recovered, when complications set in. The attack left him so weak that his condition is now grave. Mr. Akin, who was born at Quaker Hill. Pawling, N. Y., on Aug. 14, 1803, was active in constructing the Harlem Railroad. It was his financial assistance that enabled 1848, when the charter was to expire. The first train to Dover Plains, Dutchess county, was run that day. For a number of years Mr. Akin was president of the Fawing National Bank. He was a member of the Electoral College that placed James A Garfield in the White house. He owns Mizzen Top at Pawling and built Akin Hall, a non-sectariun summer school, and the People's Library at Particles of the People's Library at the Peop He spent about $380,000 on the

Alien Campbell, the engineer, to complete the road by the last day of December,

SCHOOLTEACHERS SAY STRIKE. Thirty of Them in Derby, Conn., Demand a 10 Per Cent. Increase at Once. DERBY, Conn., Jan. 11.-Thirty teachers in the grammar grades of the public schools in this city notified the Borrd of Education a few days ago that if their pay was not in creased 10 per cent. at once they would leave their schools and go out on a strike On Saturday night, the Board of Education, after a long special session, voted to ask for $2,000 from the Board of Apportion-ment to meet the increase in teachers' salaries. This board is opposed to the increase. The teachers to light said that if the Board of Apportionment act unfav-orably on their petition there will be a gen-ral strike of all the Derby schooltead PICKLES ON DECK. Bayonne Fire Horse Runs to Engine Home and Gets Into Harness.

Pickles is the name of a knowing horse owned by the Independence Engine Com-pany in Bayonne. Yesterday while the snimal was stabled three blocks from the fire house on Avenue D, near Sixth street, an alarm of fire was sounded. Pickles heard the big fire bell'ring and dashed from the stable to the engine house and did not stop until he stood under the swinging harness.

Black and White" Is All Right. It's the smoothest ever drank .- Adr

Fallow the Crowds and you will find yourself traveling on the York Central Lines—one trip secures the pastor life.—Adr.

NO HOPE FOR ABRAMS. HEWITT

PRICE TWO CENTS.

HE IS DYING WITHOUT PAIN, AND CLEAR OF MIND.

All His Family About Him-He Insisted Yesterday on Seeing Some Old Friends Among the Many Eminent New Yorkers Who Came to His House. Abram S. Hewitt is dying. At 1 o'clock vesterday afternoon Dr. Edward L. Keyes, one of the attending physicians, said: Mr. Hewitt may live five minutes and he may live five hours. That is about all on say."

Mr Hewitt siept most of the day. When he was awake his mind was perfectly clear and he was in no pain.

Three bulletins were issued from the sick room, one at noon, one at 5 P. M. and one at 10 o'clock last evening, which last one was as follows:

Mr. Hewitt continues to grow progressively weaker. He sleeps most of the time and suffers no pain. E. L. KETES, uffers no pain.

The other bulletins were: Noon-Mr. Hewitt's condition is worse.

His strength is failing.

5 P. M.-No change since noon. General ondition throughout the day weaker than

As was stated in THE SUN yesterday Mr. Hewitt is suffering from obstructive jaundice. The course of the disease has covered a period of two months, but the severe stage was not reached until four days ago. Up to that time, although his family and physicians advised against it. Mr. Hewitt was at his office, 17 Burling lip, nearly every day.

On Friday, the attending physicians were of the opinion that only an operation could save the patient's life, and Dr. Francis Delafield was called in consultation. Dr. Delafield agreed with the attending physicians, but like them, did not believe that a men of Mr. Hewitt's advanced age (he is in his 81st year) could survive an operation, and it was determined to make the patient as comfortable as possible until the end. Mr. Hewitt realized on Saturday that he could not get well and he told members of his family that he would be quite ready when the call should come.

For many years, twenty-five or more, Mr. Hewitt has been a great sufferer from sleeplessness. He has seldom during all that time been able to get more than three or four hours of sleep in a night, but the loss of sleep seemed never to interfere with the enormous amount of work he turned off in the course of a day. Yesterday morning one of the family went into the sick chamber and walked softly up physicians, but like them, did not believe Hearing of her success others are now day morning one of the family went into the sick chamber and walked softly up to the bed.

"Don't fear to disturb me," said Mr.
Hewitt looking up. "I'm awake. This last illness, however, is giving me a chance to make up some of the sleep I've lost, and I seem to be making the most of the

I seem to be making the most of the opportunity."

Shortly before the 10 o'clock bulletin was issued four tanks of oxygen were taken into the house, but not for immediate use. The physicians were preparing for an emergency that might arise at any time. All of the immediate family are within call from the bedside. These are Mrs. Hewitt, who was Peter Cooper Hewitt, the latter being a daughter of Frank Work; Mr. Edward R. Hewitt and his wife, who was Miss Mary Ashley: Erskine Hewitt and the daughters, the Misses Sarah C. and Eleanor G. Hewitt, and Mrs. J. O. Green, the wife of Dr. Green of 18 Lexington avenue. She was Miss Annella Hewitt. Besides the immediate family, Mr. and Mrs. Fdward Cooper, the former Mrs. Hewitt's brother; Gen. and Mrs. Lloyd Bryce, the son-in-law and daughter of Edward Cooper, and Charles Cooper are at the house.

All day vesterday and well into the evenlation for women at the hands of the Legislature now in session.

A Constitutional amendment giving the ballot to women will be asked for if a canautomobiles in front of the Hewitt house. at the southeast corner of Twenty-second street and Lexington avenue. They brought old personal, business and political friends of Mr. Hewitt, as well as the social acquaintances of the Hewitt and Cooper families. Most of the callers simply left cards, but many were received by members of the family, and a few, whose presence below stairs was made known to Mr. Hewitt, were admitted to the sickroom when he hissisted upon seeing them. Among those who called were:

Mayor Low, John E. Parsons, John Cadwa'ader, Andrew Carnegie, Edward M. Shepard, Norman S. Dike, Philip Schuyler, Dr. John McG. Woodbury, John E. Billings, Prof. J. D. Prince, Hugh S. Garnee, George L. Rives, Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Frank Work, D. Willis James, Morris K. Jesup, William E. Dodge and Charles Stewart Smith. at the souther

APPEAL TO "BUD" TO COME HOME. The Rochester Woman Who Made It

Refuses to Say Who "Bud" Is. ROCHESTER, Jan. 11.—This advertisement appeared in a New York paper this morning: BUD—Come to me at once or send for me: cannot be without you. I promise never to be cross: just give me one more charce; I am pierd up for my fire 'phone at once Bell, 972 Chase, Rochester, X. Y. Your devoted wife.

The woman who had the advertisement printed is Amelia Louville, who boards at 201 William street this city. Walter S. Beaumer is the woman's uncle, and she has boarded with him since last Thursday. Beaumer does i t know who "Bud" is and Mrs. Louville won't tell. The woman is about 25 years old. She was much exerised because she couldn't find the personal in the copy of the paper that she bought. she wired the advertisement vesterday and sent $4 to pay for it When THE SUN reporter suggested that it was probably too late for the early edition she flew into rage. "I wanted it in all the papers that go out of town," she said. "I wanted it go to Chicago."

As nearly as can be learned Mrs. Louville and "Bud" separated in San Francisco and she came East. She got a letter from him offering to make up and telling her to nsert the advertisement, which she did. Bud" is, according to one story told by ner, an actor she met 'n New York city.

SHE DOESN'T WANT A HUSBAND. ome One Played a Joke on Mrs. Houghton -500 Applications In.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Jan. 11 .- More than five hundred proposals of marriage are at the disposal of Mrs. William Houghton of Southington, Ohio, and she is so tired of hem that she is begging the postal authorities to stop the letters. Two weeks ago a letter was received by Postmaster Hahr of this city signed with Mrs. Houghton's name proposing marriage to any good man who wanted a widow and a big farm. The letter was published and applications poured in. Postmaster Hahn has now eceived a letter from Mrs. Houghton saving she did not write the letter and hat 500 applications have been received. she is tired of getting them, she says. She has no farm, but a large family, which she's working hard to maintain, and she doesn't want to be bothered with them. She wike Postmaster Hahn to call them off.

Cuts the phiegm-cures the cough-

adon Cigarettes .- Ada